Dear Friends,

Warmest greetings to you as we seek your assistance in helping the Baptist World Alliance (BWA) identify a talented individual to serve as the first Director of Communications and Media. The Director will work in close collaboration with the General Secretary to develop and guide the BWA Communications strategy and its implementation across all programs and platforms.

Please find attached a copy of the job specification which includes detailed responsibilities and expectations for this new position.

To apply, please communicate directly via email to employment@bwanet.org.

Applications should include a resume/CV, three professional references and a one page document outlining the candidate's vision for enhancing this area of BWA's ministry. Additional application pieces that could be submitted include a one page writing sample, short videos produced by the candidate, websites developed or other portfolio components.

The deadline for submitting all application components is June 15.

Thank you for giving this matter your prayers and consideration. We look forward to hiring the first BWA Director of Communications and Media and we appreciate your help as we add this vital component to our staff team. Please feel free to distribute.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads 'Elijah M. Brown' with a stylized flourish at the end.

Rev. Elijah M. Brown, PhD
General Secretary
Baptist World Alliance
